One of the barbed spines which this fish carries in its whiplike tail, pierced the boy's neck, cutting the jugular vein. He bled to death within four minutes.

MAN IS HELD TO ANSWER CHARGES

J. A. Bordeaux and L. E. Gillett Cause Arrest of C. L. Wright.

C. L. Wright, alias F. A. Lang, is held at the county jail on charges of swindling and forgery. He was arrested Thursday afternoon by police officers.

A. V. Gonzalez, complaint having been filed in justice E. B. McClintock's court by J. A. Bordeaux and L. E. Gillett, both insurance men of this city.

Wright, or Lang, who was employed as a stock salesman by Bordeaux, is said to have represented himself to be a man of experience in that line.

Bordeaux says that Wright told him that he had money in Waco and gave him a draft for $25 on the Waco National bank. There is no such bank there and when Wright's attention was called to the matter, he refused to cash the draft.

Wright made an error and the draft should have been drawn on the Waco State bank. While this draft was on its way to Waco, Wright told Bordeaux, who reported that L. E. Gillett had subscribed for some stock. An investigation led to the disclosure, it is declared, that Wright had seen Mr. Gillett and had represented himself as Lang. Gillett declared the signature on the order to be a forgery so Wright was arrested.

Thursday afternoon Justice McClintock agreed to release Wright on a $1000 bond but he could not obtain the bond and is still held in jail. He will be given a preliminary hearing as soon as county attorney W. W. Bridges, who is ill is able to appear in court.

Scott White left Wednesday for the east to visit his relatives.

LAS CRUCES AND MESILLA VALLEY

WHEAT BRINGS $50 AN ACRE TO RANCHERS

Upper Valley Farmers Find Crop Beats Growing Alfalfa.

Las Cruces, N. M., July 1.—The lower Mesilla valley has made good. When the ranchers up there started to turn their ground over for wheat and said they were going to raise 50 bushels to the acre or bust a suspender, some of the knowing ones chuckled and put on a Missouri smile. Two big steam threshers are at work in the La Union country and the 2000 acres of golden wheat is yielding 50 bushels to the acre and better. The wheat is bringing $1 at the mill with the sacks returned for more wheat.

COTTAGE IS SOLD AT LAS CRUCES

Las Cruces, N. M., July 21.—C. J. Tucker has purchased from M. H. Peterson the red brick cottage in Peterson place and is moving into it.

The residences of W. W. Cox, Numa C. Prenger and Felipe Lucero are rapidly nearing completion under the large forces of workmen engaged in the construction.

LA MESA GETS TELEPHONE SERVICE; FARMERS HELP

Work Is Started to Secure Interurban Line; La Mesa Wants Physician and Cottages for Rent.

La Mesa, N. M., July 21.—The west side is now permanently connected by phone and residents of this section appreciate the convenience. It has been a struggle of years to get telephone service up and down the valley. The Farmers' associations on the east and west side were largely instrumental in securing a telephone system, and the successful result illustrates unmistakably the splendid success which comes from cooperation.

Now for an electric line. Let the farmers pull together for an electric or interurban railroad, that is sure to come. The farmers can hasten its coming by boosting, and telling of the resources and isolation from markets of the productive soil of which so little is yet developed because of the lack of transportation and other facilities which are essential to a progressive district.

Sunday, July 21, at the Westside Farmers' association will hold a general meeting at La Mesa. All members and interested farmers are invited to attend.

La Mesa needs some energetic person to open a business. Some one needs a physician. Some one needs a man and good mixer. The field is open. La Mesa also needs some one with enterprise and money to build about a dozen cottages to rent. The demand for houses to rent is increasing. There is only one house which rents and it is engaged for two years.
